REVIEW

I recently planned a weekend away at Hencote for my sister hen party. There were 14 of us in total and we were a very tame group, searching for a relaxing weekend away as oppose to a party trip.

We stayed in the large on-site house called The Grange at Hencote. The house was stunning inside and out, including free standing baths, large dinner table, open plan kitchen, comfortable seating area and outdoor hottub.

Whilst visiting we also did the winery experience which Hencote offer and our party loved it. The lady hosting was so knowledgeable and it was lovely sampling their wines.

Lastly, we stopped in the restaurant for breakfast on the Sunday which was delicious.

Overall, our trip was absolutely perfect and every single person had a great weekend.

The quality of service was impeccable, fast communication and reliable.

I will be recommending this place to everyone!"
